March 7 – In President Biden’s State of the Union speech on Thursday, March 7th, he announced plans to establish a naval port on the coast of Gaza in the Mediterranean Sea to deliver aid. The construction of this port provides Hamas with an opportunity to strategically capture such aid for themselves, use it to advance their terrorist agenda, and potentially target U.S. soldiers. (March 2024)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/press-briefings/2024/03/07/background-press-call-on-humanitarian-aid-for-gaza-ahead-of-the-state-of-the-union/>

March 19 – On March 19th, the Biden administration’s Department of State closed comments on its proposed rulemaking regarding “Nondiscrimination in Foreign Assistance.” This proposal would hinder faith-based groups from participating in federal programs alongside their secular counterparts and cut off aid to foreign countries that don’t support the progressive Left’s social agenda. At a time when China is expanding its influence around the world, America cannot afford to let its alliances deteriorate—especially by trampling on traditional values. (March 2024)

March 20 – The Biden administration released new standards on Wednesday, March 20th to advance its radical climate plans. The rule will mandate that up to two-thirds of new cars and trucks sold in the U.S. be electric vehicles (EVs) by 2032. The Biden administration’s EV rule creates higher prices, a greater reliance on the Chinese Communist Party, and fewer choices for consumers. President Biden’s actions will make it more difficult for Americans to buy and maintain a vehicle. (March 2024)

March 28 – In a continued effort to distinguish itself from the Trump-Pence administration’s policies without regard for those policies’ benefits, the Biden administration is abandoning the expansion of short-term health insurance plans. The new rule, announced on March 28th, restricts such plans to three months with a single four-month renewal, compared to the previous plans of under a year with a renewal of up to 36 months. This reversal is concerning, as it could limit consumer choice and increase the number of people without insurance. (March 2024)

FEBRUARY 2024

February 1 – Joe Biden issued an executive order as of Thursday, February 1st, targeting Israeli settlers in the West Bank. This order gives the Treasury Department the power to impose financial sanctions on persons seeking harm in the West Bank. The problem is that the definitions used to determine a person fitting this qualification are vague enough to include any Israeli settling in the West Bank. (February 2024)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/2024/02/01/executive-order-on-imposing-certain-sanctions-on-persons-undermining-peace-security-and-stability-in-the-west-bank/>

February 6 – The National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) introduced a Draft Interagency Guidance Framework for Considering the Exercise of March-In Rights that sets out to clarify the guidelines by which march-in rights can be exercised. The new guidance expands the government's discretion of march-in rights in a way that will lead to a variety of industries facing ramifications. The Biden administration's aggressive agenda to lower the cost of prescription drugs disregards the negative side effects creating a hesitation by industries to enter government partnerships and ultimately a hindrance to innovation and development. (February 2024)

February 7 – On Wednesday, February 7th, the Biden administration finalized a ruling increasing restrictions on particulate matter produced by manufacturing and energy sectors. The new guidelines decrease the annual PM2.5 standard from a level of 12 micrograms per cubic meter to a level of 9 micrograms per cubic meter. The industry reveals this regulation will have a disastrous economic consequence. The Biden administration continues to make aggressive changes to appease climate change activists, yet has the power to bring about economic devastation. (February 2024)

<https://www.epa.gov/newsreleases/epa-finalizes-stronger-standards-harmful-soot-pollution-significantly-increasing>

February 14 – The Biden administration announced on Wednesday, February 14th Palestinians will be exempt from deportation for at least 18 months. President Biden released a memorandum explaining his decision to approve deferred enforced departure (DED) for Palestinian nationals which included the ability for noncitizens to apply for employment authorization. The US is providing asylum even to those who are passionately supportive of the terrorist group, Hamas. (February 2024)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/2024/02/14/memorandum-on-the-deferred-enforced-departure-for-certain-palestinians/>

February 21 – In another wave of student debt cancellation, the Biden administration announced the cancellation of an additional $1.2 billion on Wednesday, February 22nd. At this point, Biden has given away almost $138 billion to forgive student loans. Borrowing money with the intent of paying it back is no light commitment. We do not want a society that believes you can take out a loan and need not have any concern for repayment. The reality is someone must deal with the bill. America cannot afford to add to its already high debt of over $30 trillion. (February 2024)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2024/02/21/fact-sheet-president-biden-cancels-student-debt-for-more-than-150000-student-loan-borrowers-ahead-of-schedule/>

February 23 – The Biden administration clearly stated on Friday, February 23rd that Israel’s plan to construct homes and businesses in Judea and Samaria conflicts with international law. This is a major reversal from the previous administration’s policy and punishes Israel during its time of defensive war. Israelis have the right to live in their historic homeland. (February 2024)

February 29 – On Wednesday, February 29th, the US State Department opened an investigation into an Israeli company called Finkelstein Metals. Finkelstein is the Israeli company that produces brass, bronze, and copper alloy products and is the sole manufacturer of a key component of Iron Dome parts. The precedential investigation procedure could have a dramatic impact on the entire trade relationship between Israel and the US and have expansive implications for Israeli exporters to the US, including the defense industry. JANUARY 2024

January 9 – Politically driven organizations, such as Planned Parenthood, are applauding the Biden administration at the announcement of a rule change on Tuesday, January 19th, jeopardizing the rights of religious healthcare workers to withhold participation in abortions and transgender surgeries. The proposed rule invalidates a 2019 ruling from the Department of HHS that assured medical doctors the right to refuse to take part in abortions due to religious or conscience reasons. The proposed ruling drives people of faith out of a job and faith-based institutions out of business. (January 2024)

<https://public-inspection.federalregister.gov/2024-00091.pdf>

January 9 – On Tuesday, January 9th, the Department of Labor announced a rule about the definition of “independent contractor.” There are now six different factors used for analysis to regulate the distinction between an employee and an independent contractor. This new layered reasoning overwhelmingly harms working men and women who rely on independent opportunities. With this new rule in place, the Biden administration discourages the entrepreneurial drive of Americans, especially that of moms seeking flexibility in their work. (January 2024)

<https://www.federalregister.gov/documents/2024/01/10/2024-00067/employee-or-independent-contractor-classification-under-the-fair-labor-standards-act>

January 12 – The Environment Protection Agency released a new proposed ruling on Friday, January 12th that would require oil and natural gas companies to pay an extra fee if they reach a particular level of methane emissions. The Biden administration is punishing the fossil fuel industry and everyday Americans, who will see higher energy bills with the proposed rule. The Biden-Harris Administration continues to pursue a climate agenda that is harmful for Americans. (January 2024)

January 26 – On Friday, January 26th, the Biden administration announced a pause on Liquefied Natural Gas (LNG) exports. The administration claims the Department of Energy’s five-year-old plan is “too old” and needs to be updated. In a continued attempt to appease climate change activists, the administration disrupts the creation of hundreds of good jobs and significant investments. (January 2024)

DECEMBER 2023

December 14 – The Biden administration released new guidelines on Thursday, December 14th requiring federal employees to prioritize the use of electric vehicles, rail travel, and forms of public transit when engaging in official business. This policy picks winners and losers in the transportation industry and interferes with employees’ personal choice. This policy is also inefficient for taxpayers, as electric vehicles are generally far more expensive than their gas-powered counterparts. (December 2023)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2023/12/14/fact-sheet-biden-harris-administration-takes-action-to-accelerate-americas-clean-transportation-future/#:~:text=These%20operational%20changes%20will%20accelerate,percent%20emissions%20reduction%20by%202030.>

December 15 – On Friday, December 15th, the Biden administration continued to advance its radical environmental agenda by significantly decreasing the number of offshore oil and gas lease sales over the next five years. The Department of the Interior’s five-year plan allows for only three Gulf of Mexico lease sales, the smallest number ever distributed. Limiting access to this crucial national asset inevitably leads to everyday Americans facing rising costs at the pump, a decrease in good-paying jobs, and a weak America as countries like Russia, Iran, and China benefit from the advantages of energy production. (December 2023)

December 18 – The Biden administration’s Department of Energy is now putting $530 million towards pushing its climate agenda into state and local governments. This announcement, made on Monday, December 18th, seeks to change energy laws around the country to reflect strict standards. This push incentivizes policies that would ban or limit new buildings from using natural gas and force them to adhere to an unrealistic climate agenda. (December 2023)

<https://www.energy.gov/articles/biden-harris-administration-announces-530-million-building-energy-efficiency-and>

December 22 – The U.S. Department of the Treasury and Internal Revenue Service released guidelines on a Hydrogen Production Credit, Friday, December 22nd. These new restrictions institute significant change in what qualifies as “hydrogen power development” to receive large federal tax credits. As expected, these regulations are supported by environmentalists and some green energy companies but are not supported by business and clean power industry groups. In the end, these restrictions will discourage investment, inflate the cost of hydrogen, and work against the low-carbon power sources that already exist. The U.S. Chamber of Commerce said the new guidance will “stunt the growth of a critical industry before it has even begun.” (December 2023)

NOVEMBER 2023

November 27 – On Monday, November 27th, the Biden administration announced its “new actions” to progress the agenda of Bidenomics. The administration using government control to regulate supplies and processes is all too familiar. The creation of an economic council on supply chains appears to be another attempt by President Biden to force his energy and climate policies on the American people. For example, one action includes monitoring climate impacts of the supply chain while another regulates energy and critical minerals. The Biden administration continues to advance their big-government agenda. (November 2023)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2023/11/27/fact-sheet-president-biden-announces-new-actions-to-strengthen-americas-supply-chains-lower-costs-for-families-and-secure-key-sectors/>

November 17 – On November 17th, President Biden exercised his emergency authority to utilize the Cold War-era Defense Production Act (DPA) and boost spending on clean energy technologies, citing "climate change" as the reason for this executive action. This move contradicts our country’s strong energy position, as the Biden administration is spending $169 million to produce electric heat pumps under the Defense Production Act in a way the act was never intended to be used: helping favored industries for an ideological agenda. (November 2023)

OCTOBER 2023

October 27 - In a sweeping action, President Biden's Bureau of Industry and Security instituted an immediate 90-day halt for issuing US export licenses on a majority of civilian firearms beginning October 27th. The following are included in the pause: ECCN 0A501 Firearms and Related Parts, ECCN 0A502 Shotguns, ECCN 0A504 Firearms Sights, and ECCN 0A505 Ammunition. United States economic and commercial interests, as well as US national security and foreign policy interests, are at risk with the pause. The industry estimates a direct cost of $89 million, with that price almost tripling over a year if the halt were to become permanent. A lack of supply will lead to a void with the potential to be filled by the illegal arms market. (October 2023)

<https://www.bis.doc.gov/index.php/documents/policy-guidance/3374-2023-10-27-bis-faqs-firearms-pause-and-review/file>

October 18 - On October 18th, President Biden announced that the United States will send $100 million towards humanitarian aid for the Palestinian people in Gaza and Judea/Samaria. Hamas terrorists will undoubtedly intervene and use the aid as a source of funding to carry out further attacks. This aid will not help people who actually need it, nor will it encourage an end to the ongoing conflict. Rather, it will serve as a resupply fund for Hamas. The Biden-Harris administration continues to embolden Iran and its terror proxies. (October 2023)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2023/10/04/president-biden-announces-an-additional-9-billion-in-student-debt-relief-for-125000-americans/>

October 4 – On October 4th, President Biden announced an additional $9 billion in student debt relief, bringing the total debt cancellation of the Biden administration to $127 billion. The manner in which the Biden administration is forgiving student loans disadvantages taxpayers who did not attend college or those who worked hard to pay off their student loans. The recent announcement comes as the Biden administration continues to ignore the root issues of affordability in higher education. (October 2023)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2023/10/04/president-bidenannounces-an-additional-9-billion-in-student-debt-relief-for-125000-americans/>

October 2 – In early October, Biden's Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) proposed an expansion of sex-based harassment in the workplace to include using pronouns that do not align with an individual's gender identity. The new definition flies in the face of consistent rulings by federal courts which have made it clear that it is not lawful for employers to pressure employees to use speech with which they disagree. (October 2023)

SEPTEMBER 2023

September 26 – In late September, the Federal Communications Commission Chairwoman, Jessica Rosenworcel, made a move towards bringing back utility-like net neutrality regulations on United States internet providers. Net neutrality prohibits companies from managing traffic on their own networks. Net neutrality rules allow for less network innovation and greater access to illicit websites, allowing such sites to thrive - and may bring fees to access internet content that requires more bandwidth. (September 2023)

<https://docs.fcc.gov/public/attachments/DOC-397235A1.pdf>

September 20 – On September 20th, the Secretary of Homeland Security signed an order to extend the Temporary Protected Status for Venezuelans for 18 months. The expansion provides individuals who arrived in the United States on or after July 31, 2023, safety from removal, as well as authorization to work. The DHS decision only worsens existing issues present at the border. Rather than working to control the overcrowded borders, the Biden Administration continues to make it easy for illegal immigrants to come into and remain in the United States. (September 2023)

<https://www.dhs.gov/news/2023/09/20/secretary-mayorkas-announces-extension-andredesignation-venezuela-temporary>

September 15 – On September 15th, the Biden-Harris administration's Office of Personnel Management proposed a new rule to make firing career federal employees nearly impossible. Agencies would be forced to gather evidence of an employee's misconduct or inadequate performance that allows for removal. This process is predicted to, at times, take more than a year to complete. These firing regulations ultimately hinder government performance and make it harder for the government to operate efficiently. (September 2023)

AUGUST 2023

August 20 – It was revealed in late August that the Biden administration has been quietly selling off materials meant to be used for border wall construction. The administration has collected millions of dollars for the parts, which were purchased using taxpayer funds. The Biden administration’s behind-the-scenes actions come as they refuse to support efforts at our southern border to reduce illegal migration and stop the border crisis from continuing to escalate. Instead, they are choosing to actively undercut efforts to strengthen our border by surreptitiously selling materials so that they cannot be used in a border wall. (August 2023)

August 14 – After the Supreme Court’s June 29th decision in Students for Fair Admissions Inc. v. President and Fellows of Harvard College and Students for Fair Admissions Inc. v. University of North Carolina et al., the Biden Department of Justice and Department of Education jointly released guidance to colleges and universities to help them get around the Supreme Court ruling. The administration continues to look for ways to defy the Supreme Court and ensure that the unjust system of race-based college admissions stays in place. (August 2023)

<https://www.ed.gov/news/press-releases/advance-diversity-and-opportunity-higher-education-justice-and-education-departments-release-resources-advance-diversity-and-opportunity-highereducation>

August 10 – In early August, the Biden administration granted the Islamic Republic of Iran access to over $6 billion in frozen assets and released Iranian prisoners in exchange for five American hostages. While the safe return of unjustly held Americans is always a cause for celebration, the manner in which President Biden achieved this is cause for deep concern. Iran is taking Americans prisoner precisely to get ransoms like these, and the Biden administration continues to pay increasing prices and cave to the demands of Iran’s ruling mullahs. This decision emboldens Iran and our other adversaries to hold America hostage and capture American citizens as leverage to achieve other goals. (August 2023)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2023/08/10/statement-from-national-security-council-spokesperson-adrienne-watson-on-the-status-of-unjustly-detained-americans-in-iran/> <https://www.nationalreview.com/2023/08/the-critical-flaws-in-bidens-hostage-deal-with-iran/>

August 8 – President Biden created a new national monument in Arizona on August 8, banning uranium mining in a wide swath of land surrounding the Grand Canyon. Biden made it clear that this move is being taken in order to use the power of big government to “combat the existential threat of climate change,” though all the move really does is weaken American energy independence. (August 2023)

JULY 2023

July 28 – The Department of Transportation announced a new fuel economy standards proposal that would require vehicles to meet new standards by 2032—66 miles per gallon for passenger cars and 54 miles per gallon for light trucks. Such a standard would place major burdens on automobile manufacturers and consumers and force a shift towards expensive and less efficient electric vehicles. This forced reliance on electric vehicles will also force greater reliance on the People’s Republic of China while putting currently insurmountable burdens on our own nation’s electrical grid. (July 2023)

<https://www.nhtsa.gov/sites/nhtsa.gov/files/2023-07/CAFE-2027-2032-HDPUV-2030-2035NPRM-web-version.pdf>

July 24 – On July 24, the State of Texas was sued by the Biden Department of Justice for taking action to stop the flow of illegal immigrants through the construction of a buoy barrier in the Rio Grande River. Not only has the Biden-Harris administration completely failed to get control of the crisis at our southern border—they are even taking steps to stop states from making efforts to protect their communities. (July 2023)

<https://www.justice.gov/opa/pr/justice-department-files-complaint-against-state-texas-illegallyplacing-floating-buoy>

July 11 – After a five-year absence, the United States rejoined the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) after the Biden administration proposed readmission. A return to UNESCO requires American taxpayers to foot an over $619 million dollar bill for back payments and future payments to an entity that recognizes Palestine as a full member, without advancing any national security interests. (July 2023)

July 7 – Department of Homeland Security Alejandro Mayorkas announced on July 7 the implementation of new “family reunification parole” programs. These programs allow certain foreign nationals from Colombia, El Salvador, Guatemala, and Honduras who have relatives in the United States to immediately enter the country rather than wait for a visa. The DHS action is a legally doubtful exercise of the Secretary’s parole power which makes immigration increasingly unmanageable, waving through inadmissible migrants en masse. (July 2023)

JUNE

June 21 – On June 21, the EPA issued a final rule establishing new biofuel volume requirements for 2023 to 2025. The new renewable fuel standards set ethanol blending levels nearly a billion gallons more than the federal government’s projected transportation fuel demand. The requirements will keep Renewable Identification Number prices astronomically high, hurting independent refiners. (June 2023)

<https://www.epa.gov/newsreleases/epa-finalizes-new-renewable-fuel-standards-strengthen-usenergy-security-support-us>

June 5 – The Biden-Harris EPA published a new federal “good neighbor” rule on June 5—the plan is an ozone emissions rule that requires states located “upwind” of other states to further decrease their emissions in order to help the “downwind” states meet their requirements. This expansive rule is yet another example of federal overreach by the administration, targeting 21 states as “out of compliance.” (June 2023)

<https://www.epa.gov/newsreleases/epa-finalizes-new-renewable-fuel-standards-strengthen-usenergy-security-support-us>

June 5 – At the beginning of June, President Biden announced that a new debt ceiling deal had been reached. The deal became the Fiscal Responsibility Act, which the president signed into law on June 3. The FRA lifts the federal debt ceiling until 2025, kicking the fiscal can down the road and ignoring the key drivers of our national debt. The plan allows unlimited borrowing and spending until 2025, waters down spending cuts, and erodes defense spending at a time when tensions with American adversaries are growing—clearly failing to meet the seriousness of our fiscal moment the real solutions it requires. (June 2023)

<https://www.epa.gov/newsreleases/epa-finalizes-new-renewable-fuel-standards-strengthen-usenergy-security-support-us>

MAY 2023

May 25 – President Biden vetoed a bill passed with bipartisan support that would have blocked the District of Columbia’s Comprehensive Policing and Justice Reform Amendment Act of 2022. Despite initially signaling their opposition to the DC crime bill by signing a Congressional disapproval resolution, the Biden administration caved to pressure from the radical Left and vetoed this latest effort to make our nation’s capital safer. (May 2023)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/2023/05/25/message-to-thehouse-of-representatives-presidents-veto-of-h-j-res-42/>

May 16 – After a bipartisan effort in Congress produced a Congressional Review Act resolution that would have undone the Biden administration’s two-year moratorium on solar tariffs, President Biden issued a veto on May 16 to keep his tariff suspension in place. This veto is another disappointing example of the Biden administration’s refusal to stand up for American workers and manufacturers as they choose instead to enable those who engage in unfair trade practices. The Biden administration continues to pick winners and losers in the energy marketplace as Americans suffer through an energy crisis of the administration’s creation. (May 2023) <https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/statements-releases/2023/05/16/statement-from-president-joe-biden-on-his-veto-of-h-j-res-39/>

May 11 – The EPA proposed new power plant regulations in May to comply with the Biden administration’s aggressive climate and environmental goals. The proposed rules are the tightest ever emission-reduction standards for power plants, and would threaten electric reliability while raising energy prices to unsustainable levels. (May 2023) <https://www.epa.gov/newsreleases/epa-proposes-new-carbon-pollution-standards-fossil-fueled-power-plants-tackle>

May 1 – Beginning on May 1, the Biden administration began to enforce their new mortgage rule which punishes buyers with good credit. The administration is requiring adjusting mortgage calculations to reduce costs for people with low credit scores by penalizing homebuyers with a FICO credit score at 680 or above. The new policy brings with it a raft of dangers to borrowers and financial stability, and could have the effect of decreasing homeownership among the middle class due to skyrocketing costs for creditworthy borrowers. This new framework will increase mortgage costs for lower-risk individuals, handicapping those borrowers with larger down payments, and will disincentivize good credit behavior—all during an inflation crisis. (May 2023) <https://www.foxbusiness.com/real-estate/experts-outraged-bidens-new-mortgage-rule-punishing-buyers-good-credit-recipe-disaster>

April 21 – President Biden signed an executive order on April 21 designed to advance environmental justice. The order creates a new Office of Environmental Justice and directs federal agencies to take a “whole-of government approach to environmental justice.” This order continues the Biden administration’s long-standing policy of expanding the administrative state wherever possible. The presidential action is a transparent attempt to entrench “environmental justice” in the bureaucracy, in the latest example of the Biden administration attempting to weaponize the federal government. (April 2023)

April 6 – On April 6, the Biden Administration’s Education Department announced a proposed change to its Title IX regulations on students’ eligibility for athletic teams. The rule would make it illegal for schools to protect women and girls in sports by requiring schools to allow transgender students to compete on sports teams based on their “gender identity.” (April 2023)

April 6 – President Biden signed an executive order on April 6 entitled “Modernizing Regulatory Review.” The order unveils a series of tangible policy positions (including a push to place greater emphasis on “equity considerations”) based on the administration’s core regulatory principles. The April 6 executive order represents a significant shift in the manner in which federal agencies engage in regulatory analysis in order to justify rulemaking, and will lead to a review process that is less rigorous. Biden’s order, and subsequent memoranda from the Office of Information and Regulatory Affairs (OIRA), could also make it far easier for agencies to use the pretext of “more expansive benefits” to justify actions that are more costly. MARCH 2023

March 31 – The Biden OPM (Office of Personnel Management) released new “Guidance Regarding Gender Identity and Inclusion in the Federal Workplace” on March 31. The new rules require federal agencies to detail plans for supporting gender transition of federal employees in the workplace. The document requires that these plans reflect internal policies and procedures detailing how gender transitions will be handled, and include details on how gender transitioning employees will be “supported” consistent with the administration’s goals. The OPM guidance says that federal agency rules must set out a procedure that “would include, with the transitioning employee’s input and consent, when and which colleagues to notify of a transition; the timing for name changes and pronoun changes, where applicable and consistent with this Guidance, in email, IT systems, and employee profiles; and a process for any gender identity inclusion training for supervisors, managers, and coworkers if such training would be beneficial.” (March 2023)

March 28 – President Biden’s EPA handed down new heavy-duty vehicle emissions regulations at the end of March, which would significantly hamstring small business owners by driving up costs. The trucking and manufacturing sectors would be hit particularly hard by the new regulatory hoops. (March 2023)

March 20 – President Biden’s Waters of the United States (WOTUS) rule went into effect on March 20. The rule officially rescinds the Trump-Pence WOTUS rule and places hundreds of thousands of streams and waterways under the jurisdiction of the federal government. The rule significantly expands federal regulatory authority by redefining “waters of the United States” to include traditional navigable waters, the territorial seas, interstate waters, as well as impoundments of these waters, their tributaries, and a wide set of adjacent wetlands. It also includes lakes, ponds, streams, and other wetlands that either form a “significant nexus” with these waters, or are “relatively permanent.” The executive overreach means that all of these waters will now officially fall under the Clean Water Act. (March 2023)

APRIL 2023 UPDATE: On April 6, President Biden vetoed a resolution overturning his WOTUS rule that was produced by a bipartisan effort in the House of Representatives and Senate. The President’s veto ensures that the expansive overreach of executive power relating to WOTUS will stand.

March 14 – On March 14, President Biden issued an executive order that continues his administration’s policy of antagonism towards gun owners. The order employs a “whole of government approach” to strengthen last year’s Bipartisan Safer Communities Act (BSCA), which gave the government ill-defined authority to target gun owners and firearm-related businesses. In his executive order, the President orders a variety of federal departments (Justice Department, Health and Human Services, Education, and others) to present how they intend to implement the BSCA to the fullest extent possible. The order also directs federal agencies to promote red flag laws, collect more information on federally licensed firearms dealers, and expand background checks. FEBRUARY 2023

February 22 – The Department of Education published a new proposed regulation that would end a Trump-Pence rule that added extra safeguards for the rights of faith-based campus groups. The Trump-Pence rule required public universities and colleges to respect the First Amendment rights of faith-based campus groups in order to receive federal grant money. The new Biden rule would force some student groups to either fight for their right to meet in court or lose the right altogether. (February 2023)

February 3 – Late Friday evening on February 3, the Biden administration notified Congress that it would be waiving sanctions on nonproliferation activities involving Iran. The decision was made despite Iran's continued noncompliance with its Comprehensive Safeguards Agreement, renewed concerns about Iran and Russia's military alliance, and clear potential benefits to Russia's state-owned energy giant, Rosatom. (February 2023) <https://www.jns.org/biden-announces-partial-waiver-of-sanctions-on-iran/>

February 2 – The Biden administration's Treasury Department, Department of Labor, and Department of Health and Human Services proposed a new rule that would rescind a Trump-Pence rule ensuring religious and moral protections for employers. Under the Trump-Pence rule, employers with religious or moral convictions were not forced to supply birth control and other contraceptive measures to health care plan enrollees. The new Biden rule will dramatically limit these protections, entirely doing away with exemptions for non-religious moral objectors and shrinking protections for religious objectors. (February 2023)

JANUARY 2023

January 25 – The Biden administration released a proposed “Renters Bill of Rights” as the latest push for more rental housing regulations. The proposal appears to accelerate incremental investment dollars to the Sunbelt while punishing subsidized housing in major cities. The White House proposal creates real concern that increased housing investment where it is most needed will be discouraged. (January 2023)

January 19 – On January 19, the Biden-Harris Department of Health and Human Services released a report entitled “Marking the 50th Anniversary of Roe: Biden-Harris Administration Efforts to Protect Reproductive Health Care.” The report outlines the administration’s approach to the recent Dobbs decision, which includes a whole-government approach to pushing abortion and contraception. (January 2023)

<https://www.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/roe-report.pdf>

January 13 – The Biden-Harris Department of Justice announced that they have submitted a new “Stabilizing Braces” Final Rule to the Federal Register. The rule would penalize law-abiding gunowners through new restrictions for legal firearms. The rule would require gun owners to register pistols with stabilizing braces (often used by disabled Americans) to register the firearms with the ATF or face up to 10 years in jail and thousands of dollars in fines. January 5 – The Biden-Harris Department of Homeland Security announced a new mass amnesty plan in early January. DECEMBER 2022

December 30 – The Biden administration waited until the very end of the year to quietly release a final “Revised Definition of ‘Waters of the United States’” rule. The new rules put unfair demands on hard-working Americans by increasing the power of the federal government over farming and private property. The rule will most directly impact economic drivers like farmers, ranchers, manufacturers, miners, and many others. (December 2022)

<https://www.epa.gov/wotus/revising-definition-waters-united-states>

December 29 – At the end of the year, President Biden signed a $1.7 trillion omnibus spending package. The bill includes $772.5 billion for nondefense discretionary programs, $858 billion in defense funding, roughly $47 billion in fresh aid to Ukraine, more than 7,200 earmarks costing over $15 billion, hundreds of millions for gender, equity, and climate initiatives, and much more. The bill marked a continued rejection by the Biden-Harris administration to listen to conservative demands for spending cuts. The over 4,000 page monstrosity includes countless shocking provisions, such as a Malthusian allocation of over $575 million for “family planning in areas where population growth threatens biodiversity or endangered species.” (December 2022)

December 12 – On December 12, the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) published its Notice of Benefit and Payment Parameters for 2024. In the document, the Biden administration proposes that they will limit the number of health plans that can be offered on the federal Exchange platform. This would render over 57% of all plans offered through the federal platform illegal and kick nearly 3 million people off of their plans. (December 2022)

December 8 – President Biden released one of the most dangerous arms dealers in the world—the “Merchant of Death” Viktor Bout—at a time when Russia is advancing a heartless war in Ukraine. Viktor Bout is a Russian weapons dealer convicted in 2011 for conspiring to kill U.S. citizens and officials. Bout was exchanged for US citizen Brittney Griner, a WNBA basketball player being held in Russia since February of 2022 on charges of drug smuggling and cannabis possession. Paul Whelan, a US Marine who has been detained in Russia since 2018, was not included in the trade. (December 2022)

December 8 – President Biden announced a $36 billion private pension bailout, the largest in American history. The money comes from President Biden’s $1.9 trillion COVID-19 release package. The act marks yet another example of the Biden administration mismanaging taxpayer funds. (December 2022)

NOVEMBER 2022

November 30 – The Biden administration dismissed a report by the Department of Defense which had found that the administration’s failed Afghanistan withdrawal was used to undermine the U.S. by the Chinese Communist Party. National Security Council spokesman John Kirby maintained, “Nations like China and Russia took a look at what we did in Afghanistan, and we’ve talked about this many, many times over the last year, and had to marvel at the speed, the efficiency of their effectiveness that very small number... of troops... are able to move that many Afghans safely out of that country.” The remarks indicate a shocking lack of awareness on the part of the administration, or a lack of willingness to acknowledge the foreign policy failure for what it was. November 22 – On November 22, the Biden-Harris administration’s Department of Education announced that they would be once again extending the pause on student loan repayments, possibly until 60 days after June 30. If this were to take place, estimates from the D.C.-based think tank The Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget indicate that it would cost upwards of $40 billion. (November 2022)

November 7 – The Washington Post awarded President Biden a “bottomless Pinocchio” rating for repeatedly claiming that he has “spent more time with Xi Jinping (President of China) than any other head of state,” and has traveled “17,000 miles with him.” The Washington Post awards the bottomless Pinocchio rating to statements repeated at least 20 times that are so false they have received either 3 or 4 “pinocchios” on previous occasions. The White House has continued to repeat the claim, even after fact-checkers proved it false. (November 2022)

November 1 – The Biden White House put out a tweet crediting “President Biden’s leadership” as the reason that Seniors are getting the biggest increase in their Social Security checks in 10 years. The White House failed to note what is directly responsible for the bump in benefits—namely, high inflation rates. The cost-of-living adjustment is the biggest in over 40 years.

UPDATE: The White House removed the tweet after Twitter added a context note to the tweet which read, “Seniors will receive a large Social Security benefit increase due to the annual cost of living adjustment, which is based on the inflation rate.” (November 2022)

October 31 – On October 31, President Biden threatened to impose a windfall tax and other restrictions on major oil companies making “excess profits,” accusing companies of “war profiteering.” The president’s fear-mongering remarks indicate that the administration is continuing to turn a blind eye to the reality of increasing energy demand, constrained supply, and faulty policy decisions. October 19 – President Biden announced that 15 million additional barrels would be released from the strategic oil reserve. As a result of the transparent move to bail out Democrats ahead of the 2022 midterms, the Strategic Petroleum Reserve (SPR) is now at its lowest level in four decades, with no plans from the Biden administration to restore it. With the latest announcement, President Biden has now sold off over 40 percent of the national stockpile (over 200 barrels) during his presidency. This is more than all other US presidents in history combined. (October 2022)

October 13 – In October 2022, OPEC announced a cut to oil production—a decision that produced outrage from the Biden administration. On October 13, The Saudi Foreign Ministry announced that the Biden administration had been aware of the decision before it took effect and had “suggested” that the cuts be delayed by a month. Such a delay would have also likely delayed any rise in US gas prices until after the 2022 midterm elections. (October 2022)

October 13 – The Biden administration’s Department of Labor published a new rule on October 13 that changed the definition of independent contractors under the Fair Labor Standards Act. The rule will make it more difficult for companies to classify workers as independent contractors, which will have a significant impact on the wages of workers. The Biden action rescinds and replaces a Trump-Pence administration rule. (October 2022)

SEPTEMBER 2022

September 8 – The Biden Department of Homeland Security issued a new “Fair and Humane Public Charge Rule,” which the criteria for public charge determinations. Under the new rule, the DHS will no longer consider SNAP, CHIP, Medicaid, or other non-cash benefits that a noncitizen is receiving while making its public charge determinations. Furthermore, the DHS will also no longer consider benefits received by the family members of applicants. These changes by the Biden-Harris DHS makes it easier for illegal aliens to rely on public benefits, ensuring that the only things that will trigger a public charge finding are the reception of cash benefits or long-term institutional care. (September 2022)

September 6 – The National Labor Relations Board announced a new joint employer proposal on September 6. This would rescind and replace a 2020 rule that provided clear criteria for companies to apply when determining status. The new rule would greatly expand joint-employer liability and has devastating implications for small businesses and the economy as a whole. (September 2022)

AUGUST 2022

August 30 – President Biden’s Department of Homeland Security issued a new final rule to protect DACA recipients from deportation. The new rule removed the requirement that DACA renewal applicants are required to apply for work authorization but affirmed that recipients can be considered “lawfully present” for purposes of the Affordable Care Act and in other contexts. (August 2022)

August 24 – President Biden signed an executive order that transferred student loan debt to the general public. The Biden action will encourage more reckless borrowing, while stoking higher inflation and saddling taxpayers with hundreds of billions of dollars in new debt. Not only is the executive order likely unconstitutional – it also serves as an insult to Americans who chose not to go to college or worked hard to pay off their student loan debts, all while supporting higher tuition rates. August 16 – President Biden signed a sweeping $750 billion health care, tax, and climate bill into law at the White House. The bill will impose a minimum tax on businesses, levy a one percent tax on stock buybacks, provide funding to double the size of the IRS with 87,000 new agents to perform audits, and much more. The so-called “Inflation Reduction Act” is a shortsighted and regressive action that punishes Americans who have watched prices skyrocket over the past year and a half. (August 2022)

JULY 2022

July 29 – In the aftermath of the Dobbs v. Jackson Women’s Health Organization decision, President Biden signed an executive order that directed the Department of Health and Human Services to expand access to chemical abortion and contraception to make them “as widely accessible as possible.” (July 2022)

<https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/2022/07/08/executive-order-onprotecting-access-to-reproductive-healthcare-services/>

July 6 – The Department of Education released new, higher standards for charter schools seeking funding. The new rules will require charter schools to submit a “community impact analysis” and prove that they are operating in a community where existing public schools are over-enrolled.

JUNE 2022

June 25 – President Biden signed into law gun control legislation that provides almost one billion dollars in incentives for states to enact problematic “red flag” laws that can result in the denial of an individual’s Second Amendment rights without due process.

(June 2022) <https://www.cnn.com/2022/06/25/politics/biden-signs-gun-bill/index.html>

June 21 – The Biden Department of Education released new proposed Title IX regulations, including a proposal that would expand its longstanding definition of sex to include “sex stereotypes, sex characteristics, pregnancy or related conditions, sexual orientation and gender identity.” The proposal could force public schools to allow biological males to participate in women’s sports and access facilities such as bathrooms and locker rooms in order to receive federal funding. MAY 2022

May 10 – When mobs gathered outside the homes of Supreme Court justices in light of the recent Dobbs draft opinion leak, the Biden White House and Department of Justice refused to condemn intimidation and threats against justices. Even while protests necessitated increased security for the justices amid threats against their lives and family members, a White House representative remarked, “We certainly continue to encourage that outside of judges’ homes.” They went on to say that “intimidation and threats against people seeking legal reproductive healthcare—and against our Capitol and American democracy also warrant some outrage.” (May 2022)

April 27 – The Biden-Harris Department of Homeland Security announced a new Disinformation Governance Board to combat “the spread of disinformation.” This followed a campaign promise from then-candidate Joe Biden during the 2020 presidential campaign to crack down on “misinformation and conspiracy theories.” The announcement itself offered few details about the purpose or powers of the board, which prompted serious concern that the Department of Homeland Security will be actively engaging in the suppression of free speech. These concerns were not assuaged by the news that the new Disinformation board would be led by Nina Jankowicz, a woman who had herself been accused of circulating false information when it came to her outspoken rejection of the Hunter Biden laptop story as “Russian disinformation.”

UPDATE: The Disinformation Governance Board and its working groups were “paused” on May 18, 2022 pending review, and Nina Jankowicz resigned her position as head of the board. On August 24, 2022, the board was formally terminated. (April 2022)

April 19 – The Biden administration undid Trump-era rollbacks of environmental regulations, reimplementing core restrictions to an environmental law on infrastructure projects. The new rules would require federal agencies to conduct an analysis of the greenhouse gases that could be emitted over the lifetime of a proposed project. (April 2022)

MARCH 2022

March 31 – The US State Department announced that starting in April of 2022, individuals will be able to select “X” as their gender on U.S. passports. The “X” on State Department public forms will be defined as “unspecified or another gender identity.” (March 2022)

<https://www.state.gov/x-gender-marker-available-on-u-s-passports-starting-april-11/>

March 21 – The Biden SEC issued a proposed rule which would require public companies to disclose greenhouse gas emissions and their exposure to climate change. If adopted, this rule would artificially disincentivize oil and gas production while increasing environmental compliance costs. (March 2022) <https://www.sec.gov/rules/proposed/2022/33-11042.pdf>

March 11 – The Biden administration continued to keep a knee to the neck of domestic oil and gas producers by imposing interim regulations through the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission which will increase the regulatory burden on natural gas facilities. (March 2022)

<https://www.regulations.gov/document/FERC-2022-0283-0001>

FEBRUARY 2022

February 19 – In response to a judge blocking the Biden administration’s arbitrary use of social costs of carbon, the administration paused all new oil and gas leases and permits on Federal land. This action unnecessarily hurt domestic production at a time when the oil and gas industry desperately needed support. (February 2022)

February 9 – The Biden Environmental Protection Agency proposed a new rule that would effectively reinstate Obama-era regulations on coal and oil-fired power plants. The rule would revoke a Trump-Pence rule that had cut red tape on coal and oil-fired power generators. (February 2022) <https://www.regulations.gov/document/EPA-HQ-OAR-2018-0794-4581>

February 4 – The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (a branch of the HHS) announced a harm reduction grant program expected to issue $30 million in grant awards, funding for which was authorized by the Biden administration’s American Rescue Plan. According to the SAMHSA plan, funds may be used to purchase “equipment and supplies to enhance harm reduction efforts,” including “safe smoking kits and supplies.” After immediate backlash caused by a fear that federal funding would be used to purchase crack pipes and other paraphernalia, HHS Secretary Xavier Becerra and ONDCP Director Rahul Gupta were forced to issue a statement clarifying that no federal funding would be used to put pipes in safe smoking kits. <https://www.samhsa.gov/grants/grant-announcements/sp-22-001> , <https://www.samhsa.gov/sites/default/files/grants/pdf/fy22-harm-reduction-nofo.pdf>, <https://www.hhs.gov/about/news/2022/02/09/statement-hhs-secretary-xavier-becerra-and-oncdpdirector-rahul-gupta.html>

January 18 – Almost a full year into his presidency, President Biden has failed to fill vacancies on the United States Sentencing Commission. Only one of the seven positions is currently filled on the commission, which sets federal sentencing guidelines for many crimes. The failure to fill these vacancies prevents the commission from even meeting the required quorum of four voting members, rendering it effectively powerless. President Trump nominated five members to the commission in August of 2020, but the Senate took no action on the Trump nominees. The U.S. Judicial Conference recommended six judges in April of 2021 for nomination, but President Biden has taken no steps to nominate a single judge. (January 2022)

January 4 – President Biden’s Office of Public Management issued new proposed regulations that will tie managers’ hands when attempting to apply disciplinary actions against delinquent workers. The proposed regulations came by the direction of a January 2021 Biden executive order and would make it once again incredibly difficult to terminate the employment of federal workers for cause, even those who have been found guilty of criminal activity. DECEMBER 2021

December 23 – The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid services rejected Medicaid work requirements in Georgia, once again taking a swipe at state-based innovation within federal programs—and at the dignity of work. The decision continued the administration’s rollback of the Trump-era policy, targeting the only remaining state with federal approval for the requirements. December 17 – The White House COVID-19 Response Team and public health officials offered a “Message to the Unvaccinated” during an official press briefing just before Christmas: “We are intent on not letting Omicron disrupt work and school for the vaccinated. You’ve done the right thing, and we will get through this. NOVEMBER 2021

November 15 – President Biden signed into law the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, which authorized $1.2 trillion in new spending, including crony subsidies for green energy. The bill used budget gimmicks, extended fees on mortgages, as well as harmful new taxes on cryptocurrency to “bring down” its top-line cost. (November 2021)

November 11 – The Biden administration changed the USA’s UN vote from ‘no’ to ‘abstention’ on UNRWA affirmation, breaking with the voting pattern on Israel set by the Trump administration. The Biden administration did not reject a UN General Assembly Resolution granting Palestinian refugees the right to return to Israel. (November 2021)

November 4 – The U.S. Department of Labor’s Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) officially announced the imposition of a vaccine mandate for employees of large employers (100 or more employees) in a blatant abuse of power from the Biden administration dictating the personal medical decisions of millions of Americans. The mandate, which would have applied to more than 80 million American workers, was later struck down as unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court in the case NFIB v. OSHA (595 U.S. ____ (2022)). (November 2021)

November 3 – The Biden “Build Back Better” plan was introduced with a bevy of destructive policies that would cripple domestic oil and gas producers. Among these destructive policies, the plan featured a tax on natural gas, in the form of a tax on up to $1500 per ton of methane. It also would increase fees and royalties for both onshore and offshore oil and gas production, while implementing an $8 billion tax on companies that produce, process, transmit, or store oil and natural gas. The plan drives up costs for fossil fuel competition, expanding the EV Tax Credit from $7,500 to $12,500. The plan also includes a $13 billion tax increase on oil production, increasing the tax on each barrel of crude oil from 9.7 cents to 16.4 cents. (November 2021)

November 2 – The Biden administration launched a Global Methane Pledge with a stated goal of reducing global methane emissions and limiting global warming to 1.5 degrees Celsius. Notably, Russia and China did not sign the pledge, which increased the world’s reliance on those countries for oil and gas while simultaneously hamstringing the U.S. domestic natural gas industry. <https://www.ice.gov/doclib/coronavirus/eroCOVID19responseReqsCleanFacilities.pdf>

October 13 – The U.S. Department of Labor proposed a rule to consider “environmental, social, and governance factors” in plan management, which would direct the federal government to implement policies that considers “climate change” related financial risks. (October 2021)

October 4 – Attorney General Merrick Garland released a memo directing the FBI to take an active role in addressing “harassment, intimidation, and threats” against school administrators, board members, teachers, and staff in the wake of protests against critical race theory and failed responses by school boards and administrators to sexual harassment and assault. The memo was widely understood to give the FBI a directive to intrude on local school board meetings and crack down on anti-critical race theory parental protests. (October 2021)

Under this new directive, travelers using airports, airports, commercial aircraft, and various modes of surface transportation (including passenger railroads, intercity bus services, and other public transportation) are subject to a new range of penalties if they violate the requirement to wear a mask. The new range of penalties are $500-$1000 for first offenders and $1000-$3000 for second offenders. AUGUST 2021

August 2021 – President Biden oversaw one of the greatest foreign policy failures in the modern era, the catastrophic withdrawal from Afghanistan. This blunder resulted in the collapse of the Afghan forces and the Afghan government, resigned billions of dollars worth of American equipment to the Taliban, and put thousands of Americans in jeopardy as they scrambled to escape Kabul. (August 2021) <https://advancingamericanfreedom.com/broke-our-deal-taliban/>

August 10 – The Department of Health and Human Services revoked Medicaid work requirements in Ohio, South Carolina, and Utah. Throughout the summer of 2021, HHS continued to unwind Trump-era policy priorities in the Medicaid program. This brought to a near conclusion the HHS's efforts to eliminate work requirements in Medicaid in the 12 states that received approval for them during the Trump administration. JULY 2021

July 30 – The Biden DOJ filed suit against the state of Texas to block state troopers from stopping migrants. The suit was brought to prevent state troopers from stopping vehicles carrying migrants on grounds that they may spread COVID-19. Attorney General Merrick Garland argued that such a practice would interfere with the federal government’s disastrous policy of “catch and release.” https://www.washingtontimes.com/news/2021/jul/30/biden-administration-sues-texas-to-block-state-tro/?utm_source=Boomtrain&utm_medium=manual&utm_campaign=newsalert&utm_content=newsalert&utm_term=newsalert&bt_e=1H1GUAqcXL%2FZ%2BDO7jpdco9oeyjYN61LYW0SKMi%2BX2cD6vftKMhILR82WO3fcXluF&bt_ts=1627687655360

July 13 – The State Department waived sanctions on the illicit Iranian oil trade on the same day that the DOJ announced new charges against a network of Iranian intelligence agents who sought to kidnap an American journalist and bring him to Iran. This gave the world’s biggest state sponsor of terrorism an economic bailout by freeing up billions of dollars that U.S. sanctions had frozen in foreign banks. (July 2021) <https://freebeacon.com/biden-administration/biden-adminwaives-sanctions-on-iranian-oil-trade-as-doj-announces-charges-on-iranian-spy-network/>

July 9 – President Biden abused the power of the pen with an Executive Order to preempt Congressional action on antitrust. This order imposes a stunning ban on voluntary non-compete agreements and grants an unprecedented amount of power to the Federal Trade Commission over mergers and acquisitions. In particular, the provisions on prescription drug pricing and transportation represent a gross overreach of executive authority. (July 2021) <https://www.whitehouse.gov/briefing-room/presidential-actions/2021/07/09/executive-order-on-promoting-competition-in-the-american-economy/>

The U.S. District Court for the Northern district of Texas determined on August 13, 2021 that the June 1 memo was issued in violation of the Administrative procedure Act and INA. The DHS was ordered to “enforce and implement MPP in good faith.” <https://www.dhs.gov/migrant-protectionprotocols>

April 28 – President Biden revealed his American Families Plan, which represents a massive and unaffordable expansion of the federal government’s role in education.
